PROGRAMS & SERVICES

Since its founding in 1938 as Fordson Junior College, Henry Ford Community College has been the gateway to higher education for thousands of students who are seeking affordable, high-quality, postsecondary education.

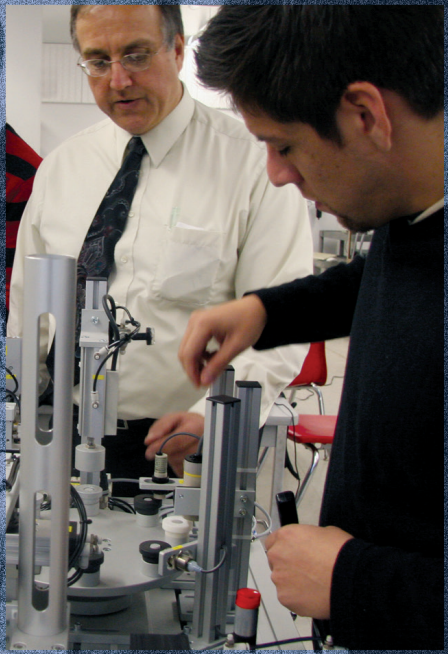
HFCC, located in southeast Michigan, serves more than 25,000 students annually by preparing them for a rapidly changing world and workplace. The College offers more than 100 associate degree, university transfer, and career programs.

In addition to providing highly skilled workers for Detroit-area employers, HFCC also specializes in customized workforce development training for business and industry through the Office of Corporate Training and the Michigan Technical Education Center[SM]. HFCC's Center for Lifelong Learning, which is located at the Dearborn Heights Campus, offers non-credit courses for professional and personal development.

HFCC is governed by a seven-member Board of Trustees elected by the citizens of the Dearborn School District.

FINANCIAL AID

The majority of our students (57.4% in 2009-2010) receive some form of financial aid. During the 2009-2010 academic year, more than $91 million dollars in financial aid was distributed to HFCC students. As of November 3, 2010, 15,118 admitted students have been awarded financial aid for the 2010-2011 academic year. In the previous academic year (2009-2010), 19,556 students were awarded financial aid.



OUR GUARANTEE

Henry Ford Community College guarantees that tuition rates will be frozen for students who graduate from HFCC within four years.

Any tuition increase levied by the College during those four years will be refunded to the student upon graduation.

HFCC BENEFITS THE COMMUNITY

Students benefit from improved lifestyles and increased earnings. Taxpayers benefit from economic growth and lower social costs.

The community as a whole benefits from increased job and investment opportunities and higher business revenues.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

The HFCC Service Area economy received roughly $51.7 million in income due to HFCC operations and capital spending.

For every dollar appropriated by state and local government, taxpayers will see a cumulative return of $3.70 over the course of a student's working career in the form of higher tax receipts and decreased social costs.

HFCC students will see their annual income increase, on average, by approximately $222 per year for every credit completed at HFCC.
