

Mission:

The Council of World Cultures seeks to foster global awareness and understanding throughout the College and greater community through the study of world cultures.

Membership Roster

John Carroll, Chair, Student Services Rep.

Bonnie Bodart, Walk-On Member

Shannon Bruley, Administrative Rep.

Katie Fitzner, At-Large Rep.

Cassandra Fluker, Student Activities Mgr.
(Ex-officio)

Brenda Hildreth, S.O.S. Rep.

Douglas Langs, Walk-On Member

Patricia Lanzon, Senate Appointed Rep.

Nancy Owen Nelson, Walk-On Member

Lathika Moragoda, At-Large Rep.

Karen Richards, Support Staff Rep.

Kim Schopmeyer, Academic V.P. (Ex-officio)

Margaret Waters, Career Ed. Rep.

Marlene White, Walk-On Member

Laura Yeakel, Academic Rep.

THE BUILDING BRIDGES LECTURE SERIES

Sponsored By

The Religious Studies Program and Council of World Cultures

Present

LEAVING NOTHING OUT: ZEN PRACTICE for EVERYDAY LIFE

WITH

Koho Vince Cousino Anila

Thursday, November 15, 2012

12:40 - 2:00 PM

L-14, Liberal Arts Building

Koho Vince Cousino Anila is the Guiding Teacher of Still Point Buddhist Temple in Detroit. Koho attended HFCC in the early 90's and later received his BA degree in English from Wayne State University. He was ordained a monk in 2003. He travels extensively, and loves to visit new places. Koho has made 3 pilgrimages to South Korea, which is the traditional home of his Zen lineage. While there, he's able to visit temples and monasteries enabling him to enrich his Zen teachings. Koho is married and has a family. He enjoys writing and is an avid cyclist. He can be seen racing around local cyclocross courses throughout the winter.

This lecture will be of special interest to students and classes from the World Religions, Political Science, Sociology, Psychology, Anthropology, History, Criminal Justice, Geography, Economics, Philosophy, English, Education, Speech, Philosophy, College Success, and Counseling.

Henry Ford Community College

5101 Evergreen Road

Dearborn, MI 48128

For information: 313-845-6441