

Mission:

The Council of World Cultures seeks to foster global awareness and understanding throughout the College and greater community through the study of world cultures.

MEMBERSHIP ROSTER

- Nahla Haidar, Chair
- Shannon Bruley, Career Education Rep.
- John Carroll, Student Services Rep.
- Oussama Ajerd, Student Rep.
- Laura Yeakel, At-Large Rep.
- Kathy Orlich, At-large Rep.
- Cassandra Fluker, Student Activities Mgr. (Ex-officio)
- Brenda Hildreth, S.O.S. Rep.
- Lina Jawad, Adjunct AFO Rep.
- William Secrest, Walk-On Member
- Karen Richards, Support Staff Rep
- Lathika Moragoda, At-Large Rep.
- Dr Lisa Copprie, Vice President

HENRY FORD COLLEGE

5101 Evergreen, Dearborn, MI 48128
www.hfcc.edu

The Building Bridges Lecture Series
Sponsored by the Religious Studies Program and Council of World Cultures

Lifting the Veil

A Gage into Islamic Culture and Fashion in 21st Century Dearborn

Tuesday, November 18, 2014
From 11:10-12:30 p.m. in L-14

Suehaila Amen & participants will discuss and demonstrate the veil style in various Cultures.

Suehaila Amen is currently employed as the Recruitment Events Coordinator/ Student Recruiter for the University of Michigan-Dearborn. Her experiences have contributed to her advancement and aided her in participating in the establishment and participation of a number of community programs which enable students to foster learning, social justice and community empowerment. For nearly 20 years Amen has volunteered her services to these various agencies and organizations, with a focus on issues concerning Arab-American youth and society. Her work, commitment, and ingenuity with prominent and well-respected organizations have positioned her in the heart of the Arab-American and Muslim community.

