

Student Support Services and Resources

Academic Year 2016 – 2017

Thank you for choosing Henry Ford College. We're focused on your success, and have several support services and resources to help you from the moment you apply until after you have graduated.

Getting Started

Let's get you into the right classes and help you start on the road to success.

Need help with:	Come see us:	What we offer:
Class placement?	Assessment Center Building WC	Testing for English, Math, Arabic, Chemistry, and ESL course placement.
Selecting classes?	Advising Building WC Counseling A-117, 313-845-9611	Assistance and support for students selecting classes.
Registering, transcripts, grades, financial aid?	Welcome Center (WC)	Transcripts, enrollment, and veteran services. WebAdvisor gives online access to registration, grades, adding/dropping classes, financial aid, and payment info.
Paying for college?	Financial Aid Cashiers Building WC 313-845-9600	Financial assistance for HFC students. Apply for Financial Aid online (www.fafsa.gov/) . Pay for classes on WebAdvisor or at the Cashier's Office. Due to the generous support of many donors, scholarships are offered yearly to students. View and apply online .

Preparing for the First Class

Let's get you prepared with the right supplies, materials, and textbooks before your first class.

Need help with:	Come see us:	What we offer:
Textbooks or HFC swag?	College Store Building C 313-845-9603	Textbooks, study guides, supplies, clothing, computer software, and snacks for sale.
Buying books, short-term transportation, emergency support?	Student Outreach & Support A-125, 313-845-9629	Personal counseling, learning skills training, seminars, and emergency funding.

Academic Success

Let's partner together to give you the resources you need to be successful.

Looking for:	Come see us:	What we offer:
Free tutoring, computer access, placement prep?	Learning Lab A-200, 313-845-9643	Free tutoring from instructors, and professional and peer tutors in reading, writing, math, biology, chemistry, drafting, accounting, placement prep, and more! Over 40 computers for student use. Color printing available.
Computer access?	K-332 Business & Econ E-194 CIS F-160 Graphic Design F-112 Music Tech SN-141 Nursing	Free computer use for students in these Programs of Study. See lab location for dates and times.
Research help, articles, books, newspapers, computer access?	Eshleman Library Building B 313-945-9606	Assistance finding, evaluating, using, and citing resources. An extensive book collection, research databases, study rooms, copiers/printers, fax, and 100+ computers for student use.
Personal or family issues counseling, help setting goals or transferring?	Counseling A-117, 313-845-9611	Assistance and support for students trying to reach personal, educational and career goals. Information on transferring to 4-year institutions and someone to just listen and give advice are available.
Disability (physical or academic) assistance?	Assisted Learning Services A-125, 313-845-9617	Services for physically challenged, learning disabled or academically disadvantaged students.
Assistance learning English?	English Language Institute K-201, 313-845-9624	English Language Learners should meet with an advisor after taking the ESL Placement Test for information about registering for classes in the ELI.

Connecting

Let's connect you with your College, other students, and potential employers.

Do you want to:	Come see us:	What we offer:
Find a job?	Career Services A-113 313-845-9618	Assistance for students and alumni in all aspects of the job-search process. We can help you find part-time, full-time, seasonal, work study, co-op education opportunities, and temporary work.
Connect with other students?	Student Activities M-105, 313-845-9865 Athletics H-9, 313-317-4138	Student clubs and organizations connections with students who have similar interests; sport; and intramural activities for students, faculty, and staff.
Get the latest HFC news or student perspective?	The Mirror News M-117	The latest college, local, national, or world news created, edited, and designed by HFC students.
Receive or donate food?	The Hawk's Nest Building L 313-317-4138	An on-campus food pantry dedicated to decreasing food insecurity by offering non-perishable food items to needy current students.