INSTRUCTOR: JACKIE SANDMEYER

Jackie Sandmeyer is the Founder and Principal of TIX Education Specialists. They received their Bachelor of Science from University of Idaho and Juris Doctor at Willamette University of Law. After creating the country's first statewide Title IX training and technical assistance program for colleges and universities, Jackie sought to fill the need for further capacity in training and consultation related to sexual harassment and interpersonal violence nationally. They have worked with colleges and universities, law enforcement, state agencies, and community based service providers to identify and create some of the nation's leading models in Title IX and student services. From pioneering education based legislation that spread to other states to developing new and emerging school based investigation techniques, Jackie and their team bring this experience and more to TIX and its clients.

OVERVIEW OF Title IX: Understanding The Purpose

An overview of the tenants of Title IX including the purpose of Title IX, how to navigate guidance and resources provided by the USDOE and OCR. A look at how schools can bridge compliance with Title IX with best practices in serving students and staff and building better processes.

Learning Objectives:
- Develop a clear understanding of requirements of Title IX
- Understand the scope and limitations of Title IX and how that intersects with best practices
- Identify where regulations begin and end and where institutional discretion can guide school's decisions
Title IX encompasses more than just sexual harassment.

Main areas of Title IX not an exhaustive list:
- sexual harassment
- retaliation
- athletics
- single sex educational programs and activities
- gender identity and gender expression
- pregnant and parenting students

Notes:
Language and Title IX:

Notes:

Sex based discrimination

1. Sexual harassment
2. Sexual Assault
3. Domestic Violence
4. Dating Violence
5. Stalking

Who does title IX apply to?
Exemptions:

Office for Civil Rights:

Current Title IX regulations are NOT retroactive in their application.

Did conduct occur before or after August 14, 2020?

Notes:
Institutional discretion:
Narrowing of Title IX:

“A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity of the recipient against a person in the United States to respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent, meaning not clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.”
“If the allegations in a formal complaint do NOT meet the definition of sexual harassment, or [jurisdiction], ... the school must dismiss such allegations for purposes of Title IX.... BUT may still address allegations in any manner the school deems appropriate under the school's own code of conduct.”

1. Does the school want to create policies to respond to “other” types of sexual harassment and sex discrimination?

2. If you capture "other" types of conduct, do you use one process provided by the federal regulations or do you use two?
Basic administrative requirements:

TITLE IX COORDINATOR:
Training Considerations:

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION:
“[Institution] does not discriminate on the basis of sex in education programs or activities it operates including admissions and employment...”

Notice of non-discrimination:

Grievance procedure:
Grievance procedure: not exhaustive list

- How to file a complaint
- Contact information of Title IX Coordinator
- Process available
- Prohibition of retaliation
- Evidence standard used
- Scope of sanctions
- Appeals process
- Impartial investigations
- Support measures
- Party notice
- Whether informal process offered
- Presumption that respondent not responsible
- Reasonably prompt timeframes
- Range of remedies
- Whether sanctions for providing false information

All non-Title IX mandated policies must be applied equitably to all parties.

Dissemination:
WHAT IS YOUR INSTITUTION’S MISSION WHEN IT COMES TO TITLE IX?

Students and staff often assume the purpose admission of Title IX on campus based on how the news frames Title IX, what friends and colleagues have said, as well as past experiences with institutional systems. Below write down what your institution's goal is for Title IX response and programs on campus. For example, is prevention an element of your mission? Creating better campus culture? Responding to incidences on campus? Intervening in behavior before it escalates or perpetuates into a pattern of behavior? Creating safe space for students to earn degrees?

WHAT INSTITUTIONAL VALUES DO YOU WANT TO SEE INCORPORATED INTO YOUR TITLE IX PROCESS?

Every institution has a unique mission and set of values that guide the work that it does. These specific values are what draw students and staff to your campus, and can be reflected to those who visit campus or partake in your programs. For example, some campuses focus on small community, diversity and inclusion, religious tenants, experiential based learning, etc. What values does your campus focus on, and how can those be incorporated into your Title IX process? How are they already reflected in your Title IX process? Title IX may be federally mandated, but how we go about meeting those mandates should reflect the campus.

WHAT IS YOUR DESIRED OUTCOME FOR EVERY TITLE IX CASE/REPORT?

How would we describe a case in which we would say that all the Title IX requirements were met AND we served our purpose on campus. What does an ideal outcome in a Title IX case look like? We often seen Title IX issues as a lose-lose situation, and disregard the question of what desired outcomes look like. Regardless of the incident that triggered the process, we have a wealth of control over how next steps and the path forward look for someone. What are ideal outcomes for a Title IX case for all parties involved, for the campus as a whole? What is an ideal experience through the Title IX process?
DAY 2

APRIL 5, 2022
Jurisdiction, Reports and Dismissals

An overview of what types of complaints fall under the scope of Title IX as well as other available types of jurisdiction such as mandated state law and institutional code of conduct policies.

Learning Objectives:
- Define types of conduct that constitute sex discrimination under Title IX
- Identify jurisdictional requirements including defining "educational program or activity"
- Understand types of reports including a "formal complaint"
- Execute dismissals when necessary and appropriate
Jurisdiction:

“A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity of the recipient against a person in the United States to respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent, meaning not clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.”
Title IX Jurisdiction Considerations:
1. Type of conduct
2. Educational program or activity
3. Person in the United States

Non-Sexual Harassment:
Sexual Harassment:

1. Sexual harassment
2. "Quid pro quo" harassment
3. Sexual assault

"Quid Pro Quo" Harassment:

"An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct." 34 CFR 106.30(a)(1)
Sexual Harassment:

"Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would determine is so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it effectively denies person’s equal access to education." 34 CFR 106.30(a)(2)

Using a reasonable person standard:
1. severe;
2. pervasive;
3. objectively offensive; AND
4. effective denial

“Clery Act/VAWA offenses are NOT evaluated for severity, pervasiveness, offensiveness or denial of equal educational access ... because such conduct is sufficiently severe...”
Sexual Assault:
“[M]eans an offense classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the [FBI]”

1. Rape
2. Sodomy
3. Sexual assault with an object
4. Fondling
5. Incest
6. Statutory rape

“If the allegations in a formal complaint do NOT meet the definition of sexual harassment, or [jurisdiction], ... the school must dismiss such allegations for purposes of Title IX.... BUT may still address allegations in any manner the school deems appropriate under the school’s own code of conduct.

Federally required minimum:
“OCR does not enforce school codes of conduct but may investigate complaints that a school’s code of conduct treated students differently based on sex, including sexual orientation or gender identity.”

Learning Objectives:
- Identify available bases for a party to appeal and which types of determinations may be appealed.
- Understand how to execute appropriate procedure for resolving appeals.
What types of records do we create throughout a grievance process?

General Rule:

34 CFR 106.45(b)(10)(ii)

Updating or correcting records:
INITIATING THE TITLE IX RESPONSE PROCESS

A look at the larger Title IX response process starting with determining when a school is considered on "notice," as well as initial response responsibilities that may be triggered.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand and define "actual knowledge"

- Outline initial steps that a Title IX Coordinator may be required to take
- Review reporting options and formal complaints
General guiding principles:

- "written grievance procedure"

- "deliberate indifference"

- Equitable treatment
Respondent considerations:

- no sanctions or punitive actions (exception: emergency removals)

- presumption of not responsible

  “presumption does not imply that the alleged harassment did not occur.” “or that the respondent is truthful or a complainant is untruthful.”

Simultaneous investigation by law enforcement:

"Reasonably prompt"
"Not restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence."

34 CFR 106.45(b)(5)(iii)

Roles and phases of the process:
“A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity of the recipient against a person in the United States to respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent, meaning not clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.”

34 CFR 106.30(a)

Actual knowledge:

Title IX Coordinator or "official with authority"

“[S]chool has a Title IX obligation to provide all students, not just the complainant, with an educational environment that does not discriminate based on sex.”

Notes:
Initial Response:

“The Title IX Coordinator must promptly contact the complainant to discuss the availability of supportive measures as defined in § 106.30, consider the complainant's wishes with respect to supportive measures, inform the complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, and explain to the complainant the process for filing a formal complaint.”

34 CFR 106.44(a)

Formal Complaint:

Notice of Allegation:
Informal Resolution Process:

Learning Objectives:
- determining relevance in cross-examination
- understand rights and options related to hearing
- identify roles and responsibilities
Role of decision-maker:

“The decision-maker(s), who cannot be the same person(s) as the Title IX Coordinator or the investigator(s)....”

-34 CFR 106.45(b)(7)(i)

decision-maker considerations:

Conflict of Interest:
"LIVE" HEARINGS

SEPERATION OF PARTIES:

CREATING A RECORDING:
- VIDEO
- AUDIOVISUAL
- TRANSCRIPT

Completion of Investigation  |  Live Hearing  |  Written Determination
10 days
If party doesn’t have advisor at hearing:
- Institution must provide free of charge
- advisor of institution's choice
- May be but does NOT need to be attorney
- Party can NOT waive having an advisor

Decorum considerations:

“Department purposefully designed these final regulations to allow recipients to retain flexibility to adopt rules of decorum that prohibit any party advisor or decision-maker(s) from questioning witnesses in an abusive, intimidating, or disrespectful manner.”

Role of investigator:
“[A]ll relevant questions and follow-up questions, including those challenging credibility.”

- Question asked of parties and witnesses
- Directly, orally and in real time
- By party's advisor of choice – NEVER by party
- “relevant, respectful and non-abusive”

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

Framework for questions and evidence:

- relevancy
- redundancy
- inculpatory and exculpatory
- privileged information
- complainant's sexual predisposition and sexual behavior
RELEVANCE:

REDUNDANCY:

"Not require, allow, rely upon, or otherwise use questions or evidence that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected under a legally recognized privilege, unless the person holding such privilege has waived the privilege."  - 34 CFR 106.45(b)(1)(x)

Privileged information:
Questions and evidence about the complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are offered to prove that:

- someone other than the respondent committed the conduct alleged (OR)
- complainant’s prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent

"Rape Sheild"

Party lack of participation:

“[A] decision-maker at a postsecondary institution may now consider statements made by parties or witnesses that are otherwise permitted under the regulations, even if those parties or witnesses do not participate in cross-examination at the live hearing, in reaching a determination regarding responsibility in a Title IX grievance process.”
Reaching a determination:

"The decision-maker(s).... must issue a written determination regarding responsibility. To reach this determination, the recipient must apply the standard of evidence described..."

- 34 CFR 106.45(b)(7)(i)

Written determination:

- Allegations of potential sexual harassment
- Description of procedural steps taken
- Findings of fact that support determination
- Application of policy to facts
- Determination of responsibility for each allegation and rationale
- If finding of responsible - remedies for complainant
- Options and process to appeal
“Decision-maker(s) to explain in writing the reasons for determinations regarding responsibility; if a decision-maker(s) inappropriately applies pre-existing assumptions that amount to bias in the process of evaluating credibility, such bias may provide for a party to appeal.”
Title IX Appeals

An overview of types of appeals that may occur during the Title IX process, and how to appropriately resolve them utilizing the institution's Title IX grievance procedure.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify available bases for a party to appeal and which types of determinations may be appealed.
- Understand how to execute appropriate procedure for resolving appeals.
What can be appealed?

1. dismissal of formal complaint or allegation within
2. determination of responsibility

Dismissals:

Available bases for appeal:

1. procedural irregularity
2. new evidence
3. conflict of interest or bias

Required bases for appeal to be included in policy.

Additional (optional) bases for appeal:

Procedural Irregularity:
"Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter."
34 CFR 106.45(b)(8)(i)(A)

New Evidence:
"New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter."
34 CFR 106.45(b)(8)(i)(B)
What is the process for parties to file an appeal?
How must appeals be resolved?

34 CFR 106.45(b)(8)(iii)

- Did not make the initial decision that is being appealed.

APPEALS: 34 CFR 106.45(b)(8)

(i) A recipient must offer both parties an appeal from a determination regarding responsibility, and from a recipient's dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein, on the following bases:

(A) Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter;
(B) New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter; and
(C) The Title IX Coordinator, investigator(s), or decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter.

(ii) A recipient may offer an appeal equally to both parties on additional bases.

(iii) As to all appeals, the recipient must:

(A) Notify the other party in writing when an appeal is filed and implement appeal procedures equally for both parties;
(B) Ensure that the decision-maker(s) for the appeal is not the same person as the decision-maker(s) that reached the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal, the investigator(s), or the Title IX Coordinator;
(C) Ensure that the decision-maker(s) for the appeal complies with the standards set forth in paragraph (b)(1)(iii) of this section;
(D) Give both parties a reasonable, equal opportunity to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome;
(E) Issue a written decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result; and
(F) Provide the written decision simultaneously to both parties.
Title IX Informal Process

An overview of types of appeals that may occur during a Title IX investigation, and how to appropriately resolve them utilizing the institution's Title IX grievance procedure.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify available bases for a party to appeal and which types of determinations may be appealed.
- Understand how to execute appropriate procedure for resolving appeals.
NOTE:
Informal processes, in addition to a grievance procedure that provides for an investigation, are one option that schools can make available to resolve complaints but is not mandated.

Language:

"A recipient may not require as a condition of enrollment or continuing enrollment, or employment or continuing employment, or enjoyment of any other right, waiver of the right to an investigation and adjudication of formal complaints of sexual harassment consistent with this section. Similarly, a recipient may not require the parties to participate in an informal resolution process...."

34 CFR 106.45(b)(9)

Appropriateness:

Informal v. Formal:
Training and qualification considerations:

“Nothing in §106.45(b)(9) requires an informal resolution process to involve the parties confronting each other or even being present in the same room.”

Conflict considerations:

Outcomes:
Recordkeeping:
A look at other forms of sex-discrimination outside sexual harassment including athletics, pregnant and parenting students, gender identity and single sex education programs and activities.

Learning Objectives:
- Understand scope of reports that may constitute sex discrimination under Title IX
- Identify the tests and facial reviews applied to determining whether a report may constitute sex discrimination
- Overview of appropriate actions and preventative measures a school can take
Areas of Title IX: *Not an exhaustive List

- Sexual harassment
- Retaliation
- Athletics
- Single sex education program or activity
- Gender identity and gender expression
- Pregnant and parenting students

Application of new regulations:

“While the proposed regulations mainly address sex discrimination in the form of sexual harassment, the Department will also continue to enforce Title IX in non-sexual harassment contexts including athletics and equal access to areas of study such as STEM Fields.”

Response to Non-Sexual Harassment
Discrimination based on sex:

- Different treatment
- Disparate impact
- Sexual Harassment

Different Treatment:

Circumstantial Evidence:

- Did the school representative treat a student differently from a similarly situated student of the opposite sex?
- Did the different treatment occur in the course of the school representative's authorized or assigned duties or responsibilities?
- Can the school articulate a legitimate, non-discriminatory reason for the different treatment?
- If they can articulate such a reason, is it pretext for discrimination?
Disparate Impact:

- Facialy neutral policy that has disproportionate impact on class of sex
- Whether substantially legitimate justification - “necessary to meeting a goal that was legitimate, important, and integral to the [recipient's] institutional mission.”
- Whether there are any "equally effective alternative practices" that would result in less adverse impact

"Non-Sexual" Sexual Harassment:
Understanding Language:
- gender expression
- gender identity
- sex
- sexual orientation

Protections that have always existed:

Gender expression & sex-sterotyping:

Bostock v. Clayton County:
- Discrimination based on sexual orientation and/or gender identity inherently involve treating individuals differently because of their sex.
- Discriminate against person for “traits or actions it would not have questions in members of a different sex.”
Current OCR interpretation:

“Title IX prohibits discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity.”

Pregnant and Parenting Students:

“[S]chool requires a doctor’s note from all students who have a physical or emotional condition requiring treatment by a doctor.”

Athletics:

1. Accommodation of student interests and abilities
2. Equivalence in athletic benefits and opportunities
“An institution must effectively accommodate the athletic interests and abilities of students of both sexes to the extent necessary to provide equal athletic opportunity” - OCR's 1979 Policy Guidance

Accomodation of student ability and interest:

Three compliance options:

1. Whether participation opportunities for male and female students are proportionate to enrollment.
2. Members of one sex have been and are underrepresented BUT institution can show a history of continuing practice of program expansion.
3. Members of one sex underrepresented and institution can NOT show a history of program expansion BUT can demonstrate that interests and abilities fully and effectively accomodated.

Interest and abilities:
Equivalence in athletic benefits and opportunities

Single Sex Programs and Activities:

General Rule:

A recipient (of federal funds) shall not provide or otherwise carry out any of its education programs or activities separately on the basis of sex or require or refuse participation therein by any of its students on the basis of sex.
Financial Assistance:

Clubs, groups and organizations:

Facilities and property:
